

El ultimo relato corto de Raymond Chandler destila violencia, lirismo y desesperacion. Cuando la mafia tiene asuntos pendientes con alguien apunta su nombre en una lista negra y lo tacha con un lapiz; significa que pronto estara muerto. No se trata de una cruel y sangrienta venganza, sino de una forma como otra cualquiera de llevar su «contabilidad». A Ikky Rosenstein, un maton de Las Vegas hastiado de este estilo de vida, le han enviado lapiz. Sin saber a quien acudir, se presenta al despacho de Philip Marlowe implorandole que salve su vida. Con la ayuda de Anne Riordan, una mujer atormentada que no se cansa de esperar a que el detective se fije en ella, Marlowe localiza a los matones que persiguen a Rosenstein. Pero conseguir sacarlo de la ciudad sera mas dificil de lo que imaginaba. Marlowe no es consciente del peligro que corre hasta que el mismo recibe una caja con un lapiz afilado dentro... Resena: «Hace cincuenta anos que murio Raymond Chandler, pero nos queda Philip Marlowe, el heroe que mas ha contribuido al exito de la novela negra.» Le Monde
