

Encompassing a period of almost fifty years, the stories of Henry James represent the most remarkable feat of sustained literary creation in modern times. For sheer richness, variety and intensity, they have no equal in fiction, enabling us to trace the evolution of a great writer in the finest detail. This collection reprints all the major stories together with many unfamiliar but equally intriguing pieces that illuminate their more celebrated companions. Volume 2 takes us from "The Private Life" of 1892 to James's last story, "A Round of Visits," published in 1910. These are the magnificent works of James's maturity—"The Death of the Lion," "The Altar of the Dead," "The Figure in the Carpet," "The Turn of the Screw," "In the Cage," "The Beast in the Jungle," and many others—in which the deepening darkness of the author's life casts a tragic but heroic shadow on the themes of his youth. Contents of Volume 2: The Private Life, The Real Thing, Owen Wingrave, The Middle Years, The Death of the Lion, The Coxon Fund, The Next Time, The Altar of the Dead, The Figure in the Carpet, The Turn of the Screw, In the Cage, The Real Right Thing, The Great Good Place, Miss Gunton of Poughkeepsie, The Abasement of the Northmores, The Special Type, The Tone of Time, The Two Faces, The Beldonald Holbein, The Story in It, Flickerbridge, The Beast in the Jungle, The Papers, Fordham Castle, Julia Bride, The Jolly Corner, Crapy Cornelia, The Bench of Desolation, A Round of Visits.
