

Live each day as if it were your last. Worry only about yourself. Work hard and never, ever fall in love. That's Olivia Buchanan's motto and she stands by it every day. Feisty, headstrong and confident, recent graduate Liv is fighting to succeed in the male dominated field she has chosen as her career. As an architect for her best friends fathers respected London based company, her chance to shine and become recognised comes when she lands the prestigious account for GO Sports and Leisure. Armed with her plans and determination, Liv is ready to deliver the presentation of her life. That is, until he walks in. The mysterious personal trainer from the gym. The only man to have ever made her heart flutter. But he isn't all he seems. When MMA fighter, Nathan Oakes offers Liv a business proposition to join him in Southern France, she's left questioning his motives and wonders if she should refuse. She's also equally intrigued by the prospect of what the trip could do for her career. Liv has no time for a relationship. Nate doesn't want one. When forced to live side by side, feelings are stretched and emotions are battled. Can they keep their professional and personal lives separate, preventing them from falling into something they both need to avoid? This book contains adult content, scenes of explicit sexual nature and language some may consider crude or offensive, it is intended for readers aged 18+
