

High in the Huron Mountains â€¦ Jordan is forced to live with her demon father, Aamon, or risk capture by the angels. Miserable, homesick, with emerging powers she canâ€™t begin to comprehend, Jordan doesnâ€™t think her luck can get much worse. And then Aamon announces she must meet with his nefarious boss. In Heaven â€¦ Michael has a secret, one that will cost him his position as an archangel if discovered. Jordanâ€™s newfound status could expose everything heâ€™s tried so hard to keep hidden. She must be silenced. In Dixonâ€™s Bluff, Wyoming â€¦ Uncle Casen and the twins are desperate to find Jordan and bring her home. With no help from their Guardian or the Celadon Circle, Casen makes a decision that unravels whatâ€™s left of their family. Outraged, Quinn sets out alone. With help from a holy relic and a long lost friend, he learns of a chilling prophecy â€“ one that not even the angels and demons can survive. And it begins and ends with Jordan.

Refracted has 43 ratings and 12 reviews. J.R. said: Although I loved the first book (and in some ways prefer it storyline wise) this book was so much bet. Refracted is book 2 in The Celadon Circle, I would recommend reading book 1 Blind Sight first. There are several F-bombs, the story honestly.
