

The next chapter in the troubled life of a young Ghanaian seeking to do right by his country, his family and himself Return to the Garden City is Powell's sequel to the successful The Colonial Gentleman's Son which introduced us to Kwame Mainu, a young Ghanaian who in the face of his homeland's newly acquired independence, struggles with conflicting pressures as he comes of age. On one hand, wanting to embrace his cultural and familial expectations within Ghana and on the other, tempted by personal wealth and advancement abroad, Kwame is drawn into a shady world that sees him flee after becoming involved with and ultimately breaking up a drug cartel. This intelligent and fast-paced sequel follows Kwame as he seeks to establish himself in the UK with his new family but is haunted by his past and the ever present threat of revenge. Embracing issues that face vulnerable African democracies in the 21st century, including aggressive international investment, crime and persisting beliefs in Black Magic, this is a compulsive read by a well-informed author. Dr John Powell OBE has had a long and successful career as Director of the Technology Consultancy Centre in Ghana, leading to his OBE award for Services to Technical Education. He now lives in Witney, Oxfordshire.
