

Three friends. Three interventions. What could go wrong? Meet Delaney Collins, Josie Garcia, and Summer Gray, three friends with questionable boundaries and only the best intentions. In The Intervention Series, they set out to fix each others lives, demonstrating that sometimes, even true love requires an intervention ... and friendship really is better than therapy. Save 40% on more than 900 pages of this series, which readers say is packed with just the right amount of wit and heart.

The Dating Intervention When Delaney Collins's fail-proof dating system fails completely, her best friends, Summer and Josie, stage The Dating Intervention, in which they take control of her dating life. Although she struggles to follow the rules they set out for her, her intuition tells her that if she doesn't, she may end up alone and forever lonely in a sea of men with stained neckties and cumbersome baggage.

The Marriage Intervention If Josie Garcia's marriage were on the rocks, at least she could drink it like a vodka cranberry. But things are much worse than that. Lately, she and her husband Paul clash like peanut butter and pickles. To help repair her marriage, Josie's best friends Delaney and Summer stage The Marriage Intervention to reignite the flame between Josie and Paul. The trouble is, Josie's ex-lover (and current boss), Scott, is making things sizzle at work. Scott has always been a secret-keeper, and now it's Josie's turn. Being a secret-keeper may cost Josie her marriage.

The Motherhood Intervention With her fifth child on the way and her son's heart surgery just around the corner, Summer Gray is already approaching her breaking point. Then her estranged mother shows up on her doorstep after fifteen years, claiming to want to rebuild their relationship. While struggling to forgive her mother (who doesn't seem to have changed) for years of neglect, Summer daydreams of contracting a semi-serious illness or suffering nearly-life-threatening injuries so she can get a hospital stay-cation. Her friends Delaney and Josie stage The Motherhood Intervention to help Summer rediscover the life she loves and forgive her mother in the process.

What Readers Say Hilary Darts ability to create likable, clever, relatable characters makes the three main characters in her Intervention trilogy feel like your new best friends. The storylines are quick-paced and packed with just the right amount of wit and heart. Each book really provides a front-row ticket into the lives of Darts three main characters - a trio of friends who rely on each other like sisters. I would highly recommend this book to those who are looking for a quick, light-hearted, and very entertaining read. - Amazon reviewer I read The Intervention Series as fast as I could. I loved the way the characters were together throughout the series. I was happy to be able to read through the books and remain in touch with the girls for just a little longer before having to say good bye. I cant wait for the next series to be available. Read these 3! You wont be disappointed! - Amazon reviewer I loved this series! I enjoyed getting to grow with the characters from book 1 to book 3. The books felt real. Like it could be me and my best friends going through the struggles and triumphs. Cant wait to read more from this author. - Amazon reviewer
